

John B. Allbrook, Jr.

February 28, 1942 - October 8, 2018

John B. Allbrook, Jr., age 76, was called to heaven on Monday, October 8. He was born in Philadelphia, PA. on February 28, 1942 to the late John and Edna Allbrook. He later lived in Feasterville, PA. with his family, and retired to Milton, DE.

John (Jack) Allbrook was a man known for many things, but mostly it was how he truly fit his name; as he was a, “Jack of all trades.” His enormous breadth of knowledge served him well as a Property Manager for Verizon for 35 years and later a consultant for Wick Fischer White. He was a skilled woodworker, fisherman, camper, an avid reader, problem-solver, Christmas fanatic, dog lover, Olympic enthusiast, and “tinkerer” of all things mechanical. There was never a problem that Jack shied away from. To watch him work and figure something out, was truly like watching the fictional character, MacGyver. Jack greeted everyone he met with a beaming smile, a firm handshake, and an opening remark that instantly made you think you knew this man your entire life. He was a lover of life and he was truly enamored by the beauty of the world that God created for us. Jack was a loving and devoted husband, father, grandfather, and friend. He was loved by so many and his absence will be felt by all that knew him. However, the lessons that he imparted will never be forgotten.

Jack Allbrook is survived by his beloved wife, Joyce Allbrook, whom he had been married to for 38 years. The way that Joyce and Jack love each other is something that is out of this world. He is also survived by his children, John Allbrook and his wife Lisa, Laurie Lagerman and her husband Brian, and Jacqueline Strada and her husband James. He has one grandson, Jared Lagerman.

“ If one's legacy can be measured through the character of their children, your legacy is well preserved my friend.

Having the privilege to work with your beautiful daughter Jackie for several years, I can truly imagine what a wonderful man you were to those who had the honor to know you.
