“ Carrie and Amy,
I am so sorry to hear of your mother's passing. Judith was one of the funniest, sweetest women and I am blessed that I got to know her. I have so many fond memories of laughing with her while we all sat at the kitchen table where I would strategically seat myself closest to the amazing and always loaded junk food drawer. May your memories of all of the wonderful moments you and the family share help you through this difficult time. You all have gained another angel watching over you. Sending love, peace and hugs,
