“ Susan and Jimmy,
We crossed paths at the Child Center - your Kevin was born exactly four months after my Patrick. Both boys were in their oversized strollers when we met - two mothers whose hearts were broken - not knowing that our boys would change our lives for the better, that they would show us the beauty of a truly innocent soul and a pure heart.
You will be in our prayers.

My deepest sympathy to you and the rest of the family but am sure that the warmth, love and sweetness that you all shared with Kevin will remain and sustain you in the future.

“ Jim and Susan,

You have poured your hearts and souls into Kevin's life. He was never without the assurance of your love and care. And he shared with you his care for all that you gave him. I hope you are now free to focus your care on your daughter and granddaughter and enjoy your relationships with your siblings and other family members.

Time and circumstances permitting, your friends and colleagues will look forward to an occasion when we can express our appreciation for what you have shared with us.

“ Susan and Jim,

I've never met you or Kevin. But I have had the privilege to care for a young lady for the past 20 years. She's 22 now. Her parents are beyond remarkable in showing their love and providing for her needs. Caring for her over the years has opened my eyes to the often hidden situations in our communities, and affected my view on the things that are really important. In reading the memories and tributes to Kevin I believe your family situation has many similarities to my client and her family. I will continue to pray for comfort, support and peace for all of you in your time of loss. (And my late brother's name was Kevin, too). Julie Tyson
