

Lorraine Lucille Layton

July 22, 1927 - February 28, 2021

Lorraine Lucille Layton, age 93 of Lewes, DE, passed away on Sunday, February 28, 2021 at Harrison Senior Living, in Georgetown, DE. She was born on July 22, 1927 in Georgetown, DE, daughter of the late Edward C. and Thelma (Rodrigues) Newhouse.

Ms. Layton was a lifetime Delaware resident, raised on her family's farm in Staytonville, DE. She attended Milford High School and after getting married, moved to Lewes. Ms. Layton enjoyed being a homemaker and embarked on a career in floral design working for McNichol Place and then spent many years at Windsors Florist. Later in life she enjoyed working with extended family at Millmans Hardware and there she was able to showcase one of her many talents - wood crafts. Lorraine had a lifetime passion for crafts, art, drawing, and woodworking. She was generous and kind and loved to make Christmas ornaments, wooden toys and decorations, and other intricate handmade crafts for friends and family. When she wasn't busy working and crafting, Ms. Layton was spending time with those she loved most. Lorraine was a dear friend to all, and a wonderful loving mother, grandmother, and great-grandmother to many.

In addition to her parents, Ms. Layton was preceded in death by her son, Wayne Layton. She is survived by her son, Eddie Layton (Beverly) of Lewes, DE; her daughter, Jeanne M. Fischer of Lewes, DE; her son, Richard Layton of Lewes, DE; her daughter, Judy Bundick (Lee) of Lewes, DE; and her numerous grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

All services will be private.

In lieu of flowers, please consider making a donation in Lorraine's honor to The Alzheimers Association alz.org or the Surfgimp Foundation surfgimpfoundation.org (a local organization who provides limitless adventures or grants for adaptive equipment to people with disabilities).

Please sign the virtual guestbook located on the tribute page.
