“ Lynn was a very special friend and neighbor of mine when we lived in Whiting House at Dean Jr College. She lived in “grand central” with three others and I shared pizza with them sitting on the floor, planning, dreaming, and sharing our stories while the Mass. snow flew. She was always full of fun. Lynn was the one who got me interested in joining DJC Choir. We sang in Boston on television, as I remember, and another time with the Boston Pops! We all were bused to sing at the N.Y. Worlds Fair in 1965. I have always been the quiet follower so I will be ever grateful for Lynn having been there to light my fire. I am not sure, but I think she also was the one who talked me into playing an exhibition basketball game. I will always regret that because I didn't have any time to practice and I knew absolutely nothing about basketball. I was like a deer in the headlights! She will really be missed. I am so sad to hear of her loss. Much love to her friends and family!

“ So many memories of Lynn and her family. I had both Lisa and Mark in kindergarten and Lynn was an important part of my classroom. I was welcomed into her home and have many "Lynn" touches in my home still. Loved her beautiful "Dorothy Hamill" hair cut and her handiwork was spectacular! I am saddened to hear of her passing. My thoughts are with the whole family - Kindest Regards and Sympathies, Betsy Merullo

“ Sending my sincere condolences to your family. Lynn and I go way back to elementary school. She was always a doll. When I moved to Texas she came with us and spent the summer. I would never have gotten through that without her. From then we spent many summers together. Although miles separated us she was always in my heart
