“ Mrs Nancy was a very special person to me at a very young age . I used to spend time with her and her family. It was like another home . She was a great cook , she read a lot and was very family oriented . When my first child was born over 30 years ago she knitted this wonderful blanket for my daughter. I still have it to this day in a keepsake tote . When she knocked on the door to come see our new little one is when she wrapped her up in it. This was a very very special moment for me as I thought the world of Mrs Nancy and im very sad today as I have just learned of her passing. God bless

“ I am so sad to read of Nancy's passing. I lived above her in Laurel in an apt. She was the sweetest most considerate neighbor anyone could have. It used to make me laugh when i would for instance drop something heavy and soon after would get a phone call "Ruth are u ok? You didnt fall did you?" She was a wonderful person and am happy to have known her.God bless her and my deepest sympathy to all her family.

“ Nancy was a sweet, humble woman who loved the Lord God. When we would be together, she would talk lovingly about her family and her times as a teacher's assistant with elementary school children. When I complimented her on a scarf necklace she wore to church, two weeks later she actually gifted it to me! That was a very special thing to do. I will cherish the conversations I had with her. God bless and comfort her family.

“ I have had the pleasure to know Nancy for over 30 years. She was friendly and you felt welcome in her presence. There are many memories I have shared with her and I can't pick one that is more special than the other. Those memories will remain close to my heart and I won't forget her or any of them. Everyone knows she is "fine" but never forgotten with each passing day. My prayers and thoughts are with all family members because they will remain close to my heart as well. God Bless All

“ I met Nancy over 10 years ago when she became a volunteer in the Foster Grandparent program. She was assigned to my school at the time, North Laurel Elementary, and I was lucky enough to have her in my classroom. Nancy loved her “job” in education and the kids and teachers loved her, too. She always had holiday gifts for all of the students and would even go above and beyond (that was her nature, right?) her duties as a foster grandparent by attending many school events outside of the school day. Not only was she a colleague, but more than that, she became a dear friend. I'm sure that she's resting peacefully now in Heaven, which she certainly deserves, but her beautiful face and kind heart will truly be missed by me and many others.
