“ I think of you so often now Melissa knowing you have to gone through this. He suffered from a couple strokes over past few years which brought on early stage dementia. No matter what you think might happen nothing can prepare you for the monster of pain that follows. Charlie and Kate have been by side always thank the good lord. I try.so hard to be strong for them, our granddaughter was especially hit hard, she's 14 now and her Pops was everything to her. It was.just a week ago but we're going to be ok as you know. Today was my first day alone but I did ok, want to get back out there and some how do him proud! I have the luxury of being home so my future is what I want it to be, not going to waste it. The entire summer was consumed by our battle, never got to beach or put a toe in the pool. Watch out next year! Anyway, I burst in tears seeing your post. Thank you so much Melissa for your prayers. We just have to stay in touch, I'm not leaving here.

“ Know one could have ever convinced me we'd be doing this but, well here we are sadly. I have my sad times but mostly just forever grateful to have shared 45 years with a man who had a heart as big as he was, kind, selfless but I think his humor touched many, what's a world without a Bobby Vincent? Associated with several small strokes, he suffered with early onset dementia, ofcourse he was miserable and we are so glad he's at peace, that last week just about all his deceased family was here off and on and once Charlie, who he kept asking for went to Christiana and stayed the day he slipped away that following morning. The poor guy spent 2 months here in the hospital, 2 weeks in a physical rehab, thankfully we got another week or so home with him for which I was so blessed. He loved you guys very much!!!!!! Was so happy to hear from you.

“ Marty and I are so sad to lose Uncle Bobby. Uncle Bobby was always so wonderful to our family and I always enjoyed his company. He was so kind to me and I remember his sweet and funny laugh when I first met him when I was little. Marty and I have very fond memories and are so very sorry.

Jennifer Holden - October 01, 2020 at 12:28 PM

“ Dearest Jen, I just saw your post on Uncle Bobby's passing and my heart soared at what you so eloquently said. You were so little when I introduced him to my family, what an event and I'll be forever so very blessed that life took me back to Maryland where I found the love of my life. Call that corny but nothing could be more true, for that I'll be forever grateful, he was truly a good man and my memories of you always make me smile. 😊

“ Dear Aunt Ava,

I will always love you and Uncle Bobby! And, yes, you and I both have been lucky in our lives to have married our best friends. I'll never forget being in your apartment with you and Uncle Bobby and spending the night. I liked him right away! You are in my thoughts as always and I am so happy for the dear memories I have of Uncle Bobby! Marty and I both smile when we think of him. Much love to you!
