“ Lewes was new to me one summers when I met Ronnie. He was funny yet at time gruff. He was full of stories with a great smile. Ronnie knew what days to find a good piece of meat to grill. Also Ronnie knew most shopping bargains in town either at Lloyd's or The Food Lion that first summer
I did enjoy Listening to his dedication to his mother and other family members The stories of his love of a girl at the picket house
RIP Ronnie

“ I was a friend of Ronnie's. He always had a good story to share. His heart was a s big as the ocean. He could always make you laugh. Ronnie knew how to grill. He enjoyed spending time and meals with his friend and neighbor Pat. I was lucky to of known Pat as well. PAT when ready, Ronnie will have the grill ready for a steak.

“ I worked with Ronnie for over 20 years. He was a great guy and a good friend. When working, he would have a tendency to sing or hum to himself. He took pride in every job he did. He was always outspoken and was pretty gruff at times, but if he liked you, you knew you could count on him. We shared many stories over the years and had many adventures ourselves. I could go on and on. He will be greatly missed.
