“ John and I were blessed to have Terry as a neighbor. She offered her support, advice and friendship to us as new parents. When it came to helping others and her community she never held back. We offer our condolences to the Bovich family.

“ Terrie was my best friend and will miss her. We would go out for lunch and then head over to A Walk Thru Time (The Little Yellow House at the Milton Light) and owner Bill Daugherty would make us laugh and laugh while we looked through his treasures. Sometimes we would pick up food at a drive thru and drive on down to a beach on the right in Dewey and eat while watching the waves. One day instead of going back to Lewes we headed to Bethany and the next thing we knew we were in Ocean City. I still don't understand how that happened. I am so grateful G-d brought Terrie into my life as I am a better person for knowing her. Rest in Peace my dear friend and we will meet again soon.. Love you, Marilyn and Mark
