“ Setting is West Branch neighborhood 1989-1993. Sheldon household for many games of backyard baseball. We had to keep moving home plate as we got stronger for the all important home runs. This memory of Tim is a classic and we still use it today. Home plate is now in the backyard hitting towards the street, but the homerun had to clear the road to count and stay inside the street light which made a perfect left field foul pole. This particular day Fran was batting, I was pitching and Tim was in the street. Fran crushes it...a no doubt abouter. Slight problem, he pulled it. This caused some chaos and a brother on brother argument if the ball stayed fair. Tim finally screamed the word “Milner” to those who were there had no idea who “Milner” was. To find out that was Francis eye doctor. Laughter broke out and it stuck. So from that point on even now an obvious errant call is a “Milner”. Years after while competing in golf tournaments I would and still say Milner when misreading putts on the green. Playing opponents just stared at me. I told them it’s a long story but it’s from a good friend. Even though life takes us in different directions you never forget your childhood memories and we had many with Tim and the whole gang. Rest In Peace Tim, you will be missed!

God Bless you and your family.

“ Dear Timmy, I find myself at a loss for words at this time, as there are none that can truly represent what I am feeling. You were a great nephew and Godson to me, and the best friend your mom has ever had. I watched you grow up into a very caring and loving young man, and I will most miss our recent few years together in Florida. You helping Charlie fix things around the house, your constant loving care for Lulu and Frank Pank, and then our football Sunday dinners, which were always such great fun. We all decked out in our Eagles NFL ware, and then we celebrated over one of your Mom and Max's special dinners, including your favorite salad, Tomatoes, Onions,,Basil, Oil,& Vinegar. You loved Florida so much, and I only wish you had more time to enjoy it. Love you Timmy and you will forever be in our hesets.. Rest well with all the family, and say Hi to Bud fror me. Love, Aunt Peeps and Uncle Charlie.

“ Timmy I felt as we were growing older that we were starting to grow closer like we were as kids. I will miss the jokes and the fun you made of me from all the trouble I got in as a youth and young adult. You always would say the words that no matter how I was feeling you always seemed to put a smile on my face. I will always remember the times we shared playing baseball day after day on Newark for NALL or just playing in the neighborhood with Corey . Eric B, Eric H., Scott H., Shaun B., Chris B., and many others I will always cherish the trip to Costa Rica to visit Aunt Rose And Uncle Bear. You are now with Dad and God , I know you are at peace with everything so enjoy your time w Dad and our grandparents. I'll always hold you close to my heart as you are my only big brother. Love your brother Fran

“ My Son, Timmy. I am missing you every hour of the day. You were my Rock, when i needed you most. We were there for each other and I still can't believe you are not here with me anymore. I keep your bedroom door closed all the time, as if you are still here but just taking a nap. I can not bear to open it to any empty room. I just know you are with your Dad now and feeling no pain. You are in God's hand forever and he will make sure you are taken care of. I am taking you with us to Florida, so I can visit you everyday!
I love you my Son, and there is not a minute that goes by that I can hear your voice and making up stories that we really thought were true, but you could hide them so seriously we believed every word you said. Enjoy your time with Daddy and your Grandparents and watch over us, until we meet again. You will be in my heart forever. I love You so much, Timmy.

Love,
Mom

“ Timmy i sure do miss you buddy. We had a ton of fun times together. We made them fun from laughing at ourselves. From getting a flat tire while delivering phone books for something to do to trying to powerwash our home(Fran & I) and everything in between. Most would say you were quiet but I couldn't tell bc you always tan your mouth and we would fight like sister and brother and laugh a few days later. I love you and miss you man. Rest easy up there and look after a of us ad you have already done. R. I. P. Timmy aka my buddy
