“ Uncle Vinny was a wonderful guy. He always had a tractor to ride or a story to tell. I remember when us kids(the Ehrmanns) would visit in Jersey and he would have planted vegetables or something good to eat. He'd say if you pick it too soon it won't taste good. "So don't pick it!!" Then he'd laugh at us. When my kids got to meet Uncle Vinny in Delaware they were so engrossed by him and his stories they talked about him for a long time. He will be greatly missed by family and friends. He was met in heaven by his lady love Mary and his good friends Phyllis and Fred Ehrmann. They're now playing cards and talking about the good old days.

Love to all,

Susan Ehrmann Taylor (Carl) and family (Mike & Wayne)
